Voice of Love concert

By Tzu Chi Foundation

Dear Sponsor,

David D'or is a world class famous singer and composer. He has performed for the United Nations and many countries in the world. David has an excellent reputation in the musical field and has won 9 Gold and Platinum records. In September, David is coming to the Bay Area and offering a benefit concert to help Tzu Chi Foundation in its fund raising effort. In the concert, David will pray for world peace with his audience.

Tzu Chi Foundation, an international non-profit, non-government organization, was founded in 1966 by Dharma Master Cheng Yen in Taiwan. Tzu Chi has a profound history of charitable services throughout the world.

Tzu Chi means "serving with compassion". As a volunteer-based, spiritual as well as humanitarian organization, Tzu Chi Foundation's mission focuses on respect, providing direct, practical and timely materials or financial aid to those in need; and inspiring love and humanity in both the givers and recipients. The Foundation has dedicated itself in the field of charity, medicine, education, humanitarian, international relief, marrow and stem cell registry, environmental protection and community volunteerism

Tzu Chi Foundation has affiliated offices in more than 40 countries, more than 200 branches around the world and rendered service in over 60 countries in 5 continents. Tzu Chi has 56 offices in United States which serve community needy locally. Tzu Chi Foundation gave $4 million in financial assistance to 57,000 Hurricane Katrina evacuees. Recently, Tzu Chi distributed more than $660,000 in emergency cash assistance to more than 2,000 families impacted by the California Wildfires in the year of 2007.

Tzu Chi's northwest regional office, located at 175 Dempsey Rd. Milpitas, CA 95035, was established in the Bay Area in 1993. This office provides services to the entire Bay Area community, regardless of race and religion. Some of our ongoing community services include

- Serving breakfast for the homeless every Sunday morning in downtown San Jose (since 1996)
- Computer and math tutoring for low income family students
- Visiting and comforting for residents at the local nursing homes every week
- Serving dinner for homeless at the local shelter during winter
- Periodically providing medical services (health fairs, health education seminars, and medical outreaches) to local communities
- Giving new books annually to inner-city school children through the gift of books program (since 2000)
